A. Overview

On the 25th of May 2018, the new European data privacy law, known as the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"), has come into force. GDPR defines a specific framework and set of rules for the protection of individuals within the European Economic Area (EEA) with regard to the processing of their personal data.

Any physical or legal person, be it an individual, a company or an organization that collects, stores, manipulates or otherwise processes personal data (hereafter collectively referred to as "processing") is affected, and is required to adopt appropriate technical and organizational measures that make such processing compliant to the provisions of the GDPR. GDPR affects therefore any physical or legal person or body who performs processing irrespective if they are established within or outside the European Union, so long as such physical or legal persons perform processing of personal data for individuals who are in the European Union.

This Privacy Policy has been prepared by Laiko Cosmos Trading Ltd (hereafter referred to as "Laiko"), with the objective of assisting our customers, employees, vendors, partners and all other interested parties that may be affected, gain an understanding of the measures we have adopted and operate, as part of our own GDPR compliance program and practices. When we mention "Laiko" "we", "us" or "our" in this Privacy Policy, we are referring to the relevant legal entity in the Laiko Cosmos Trading Ltd group responsible for processing your data.

B. Laiko as a Data Controller or Data Processor

In running our business, Laiko is a Data Controller or a Data Processor under the GDPR, with possible access to, and processing of personal data of multiple categories of physical living persons. Laiko is committed to performing such processing in transparent and fair ways, based on processes which are private by design and using appropriate technical and organizational measures in support of security and privacy objectives. This commitment is applicable throughout the lifecycle of personal data processing, including during collection, transmission, use and storage.

Laiko also commits to taking all reasonable steps to ensure that personal data processing is based on a valid legal basis <sup>1</sup>. When Laiko is the Data Processor, this commitment typically means that we rely on the Data Controller in each case, to establish a valid legal basis <sup>1</sup> for the processing we perform in that capacity. We also depend on the Data Controllers to notify us in a timely manner when any changes to the status of such bases occur. In certain other cases, the processing we perform is dictated by legislation or may be based on our legitimate interests, especially those which emanate from our professional obligations and responsibilities and / or other regulatory frameworks subject to which we perform our work.

C. What is the Basis on Which we Justify Processing of Your Personal Data

In accordance with Article 6 of the GDPR, personal data processing is lawful if at least one of the processing bases described below applies.

- the consent of the data subject (i.e. the physical living person) whose personal data is processed

- processing is necessary in order to enter into a contract to which the data subject is a contractual party or to take action at the request of the data subject before or after a contract is entered into force
- processing is necessary to comply with a statutory obligation of the Data Controller
- processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the Data Controller, unless such interest overrides the interest or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject who require the protection of personal data, in particular if the subject of the data is a child
- processing is necessary to safeguard the vital interest of the data subject or other natural person
- processing is necessary for the performance of an obligation performed in the public interest or in the exercise of public authority assigned to the Company.

Based on the above, Laiko seeks to ensure that each type of personal data processing we perform is supported by one or more of the above legal bases. With very few exceptions, the legal bases applicable to our operational routines and the resulting personal data processing we conduct are those described in the first four bullets.

D. How Do we Collect Personal Data

In the great majority of cases, we receive the personal data directly from the affected individual (i.e. the data subject"). Typically, such personal data is requested of the data subject when we initiate our relationship, or in some cases at a later stage, after we commence interacting with each other. There are various means we may accept for receiving personal data including paper-based forms, electronic self-service functions (e.g. in a website), or through email communications or physical exchange of contact information (such as a business card). We may also collect personal data via automated means when data subjects interact with resources we provide (websites logs, email submission tools, mobile applications, access control systems, time and attendance applications, CCTV systems, etc.).

We may also enhance the personal information we process about data subjects, as a result of the interactions and / or transactions between the data subjects and Laiko.

Finally, in a comparatively limited number of cases, we get personal information for the data subjects from 3rd party sources. Key examples include references from previous employers during an employment application process, lawful 3rdparty databases during Know Your Customer (KYC) checks we may perform, and other lawful services of similar nature. If the data subject is a representative of one of our customers or supplies, we may receive their personal information directly from their employer / principal, or from other colleagues of the data subjects.

E. Why we Process your Personal Data

We describe below the key ways we use personal information, and the legal bases of processing on which we rely for such processing. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.

I. Technical & Organisational Measures Protecting Personal Data

GDPR imposes obligations to Data Controllers and Data Processors which are in several cases dependent upon consistent implementation of relevant measures and controls across their own operations as well as those of their Data Processors. Our policy is to process personal data with due regard to the security, privacy and protection of the data we receive, store and process. This privacy policy explains the types of such technical and organizational measures that we employ so as to enhance the level of protection of personal data that we process. These measures are also designed to maximise the control over privacy in accordance to GDPR and have the objective of providing a level of security that is appropriate to the related risks.

- As part of our overall data protection framework, [customer] has appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO), in accordance with the requirements of GDPR. Our DPO can be contacted at dpo@laikocosmos.com
- All our personnel, including customer service agents and / or relationships managers and handlers periodically observe GDPR-specific awareness sessions so as to maintain the currency of their understanding of GDPR and how it may impact our various operations that affect persona data we process.
- We support the implementation of 3rd party entities' (such as our customers, suppliers) lawfully issued instructions to us, in relation to data subjects for whom such 3rd party entity is the Data Controller, exercising their rights under GDPR, so long as such instructions do not come in conflict with our own legal, professional or regulatory obligations. In such cases, we shall seek to notify the 3rd party entity of the options available to them.
- We seek to ensure that 3rd parties who support Laiko operations or systems or who are otherwise involved in our personal data processing operations (including those of our own customers or other affected persons), have and operate necessary technical and organizational measures for protecting the security and privacy of personal data.
- Our Incident Response Management and breach notification procedures, are designed to include escalation of identified incidents to our Data Protection Officer, who is authorized and trained to involve customer handling executives when such incidents involve personal data of one or more of Laiko affected entities and / or persons.

- Our processes are designed not to allow cross-border data transfers of personal information to which we have access and / or process during any customer engagement. If such cross-border data transfers are necessary, we shall seek to ensure that a valid lawful basis for such transfers evidently exists, in accordance with GDPR.
- Our recruitment and ongoing personnel training and development, as well as the evaluation and disciplinary processes we operate, are designed to promote and maintain a high standard of professional ethics and competency at all levels of Laiko, which is in line with industry standards and our professional and legal responsibilities.
- In addition, Laiko operates several complementary technical and organisational measures, designed to protect the privacy of personal information that we collect, store and process. Such measures include logical access controls and user rights management with the objective of minimising access to personal (and other Laiko) information and data, only to authorised Laiko personnel. We also utilise user access credentials management with enforced frequent changes, password complexity and maximum / minimum lengths, restrictions on reuse of same passwords, etc., complemented by a structured process for periodic review and confirmation of continued business need to such personal data.
- Furthermore, Laiko uses purpose-specific technologies and tools (such as firewalls, intrusion prevention, mail security gateways, etc.), all designed to monitor and manage the security of its electronic perimeter. Laiko also has in place an active and ongoing patch management program across security, server and endpoint devices for addressing newly released threats, and benefits from the use of endpoint malware protection at laptop, servers and desktop level. Finally, we also employ server and endpoint encryption, to protect against privacy risks in cases of hardware theft or loss.
- A part of our operations involves 3rd parties (legal or physical persons) who are involved and / or provide support in many aspects including invariably in personal data processing. The related technical and organizational measures which we apply and operate with the objective of enhancing and maintaining privacy are described in the next section.

J. Sub-Processors to Laiko

Like almost all organizations, Laiko utilizes 3rd parties as part of its business operations and routines. Such 3rd parties include legal and / or physical persons who provide services and / or products relating to technology, marketing, facilities management, legal and other areas which may have an impact on personal data processing (including processing as specified in this Privacy Policy).

When necessary in the context of such personal data processing, our selection process and criteria for cooperation with 3rd parties (suppliers, vendors or other advisors), incorporate consideration and evaluation of those 3rd parties' level of GDPR readiness and compliance. In this respect, we seek to ensure that 3rd parties who support Laiko operations or systems or who are otherwise involved in our personal data processing operations, have and operate necessary technical and organizational measures for protecting the security and privacy of personal data. Whenever relevant therefore, our contracts with 3rd parties include specific provisions designed to

- identify the respective role of the 3rd party as a Data Processor or Sub-processor to Laiko
- define the 3rd party's GDPR-related obligations towards Laiko, including:

- ✓ enforcement of Laiko's Data Retention Periods
- ✓ integration of the 3rd party's Incident Response Management Process into that of Laiko
- ✓ stipulating allowable access and connectivity methods for remote support (where relevant and necessary)
- ✓ definition of the processes via which Laiko shall issue relevant instructions to the 3rd party in relation to the expected and required processing of personal information (where applicable), under each respective agreement
- ✓ stipulation of the technical protection methods and treatment of software system replicas (for example for QA and / or development purposes) by the 3rd party, such as encryption and / or pseudonomisation of personal data
- ✓ prohibition for conducting cross border data transfers by the 3rd party, except with the express, prior written permission of Laiko (which itself is subject to, must be in line with and in compliance to, Laiko's contractual and other obligations to affected data subjects).
- conferring to Laiko the right to conduct periodic audits (including surprise audits) against the execution of GDPR related processes which the 3rd party supports and / or operates on Laiko's behalf. In this context, Laiko also seeks to implement review processes with the 3rd party sub-processor so as to jointly monitor on a periodic basis the effectiveness of execution of privacy processes and routines, in order for such processes to become and continue to be "Private by Design", as relevant.

K. Your Rights

Individuals whose data are processed, have defined rights under the GDPR. Specifically, GDPR requires Data Controllers and Data Processors to implement the necessary processes and mechanisms in support of data subjects' exercising the following rights, the exact definitions of which have the meanings assigned to them by the GDPR:

- Right to access to the personal data being processed for his / her person
- Right to rectification allowing individuals to request the correction or amendment of their data

- Right to withdraw consent allowing a data subject to give notice and withdraw a previously given consent for a specific type of processing
- Right to data portability allowing the transfer of personal data processed by a Data Controller to the data subject or directly to another Data Controller in electronic, machine readable format

- Right of Erasure (“right to be forgotten”) entitling a data subject – under certain circumstances - to request the deletion of their personal data.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information (or to exercise any of the other rights as listed above). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. In extreme cases, we may even refuse to comply with your request in such circumstances.

L. Queries & Complaints

Laiko is committed to acknowledge, consider and respond to all queries and complaints that it receives from any natural person who believes is affected by Laiko's processing of his / her data. To communicate such queries or complaints please contact us on dpo@laikocosmos.com, and we shall seek to respond to the substance of your query as soon as practical, within a 30 day window as stipulated by GDPR.
